

C.H.

Office of Assistant Treasurer U. S.,

Philadelphia, Pa., August 25, 1886.

Hon. Daniel M. Fox,

Supt. U. S. Mint.

Philada. Pa.

Sir:

Our supply of bags for containing $1,000. silver coin having become suddenly exhausted on account of the necessary re-bagging of a large quantity of the coin stored in our vaults by the Examining Committee, I have the honor to request the loan of two hundred (200) of this kind of bag, until such time as my requisition for bags may be filled.

If convenient, I will thank you to hand the same to Mr. Arvison, the Agent of Adams Express Co. for delivery to this office.

Very truly, yours,
